

New Westminster Photography Club (NWPC) Code of Conduct

NWPC is committed to maintaining a respectful, inclusive, and welcoming environment for all members. This Code of Conduct outlines the expectations for how members engage with one another and participate in club activities.

As a member of NWPC, you are expected to:

- Treat others with courtesy and respect at all times, both in person and online.
- Help foster an inclusive space where individuals of all genders, races, backgrounds, abilities, and photographic interests feel welcomed and valued.
- Encourage and support fellow members by sharing knowledge, listening openly, and appreciating different viewpoints.
- Participate constructively in club activities and teamwork—your involvement strengthens our community.
- Avoid any discriminatory, harassing, or bullying behaviour. Report concerns promptly to a member of the club executive.
- Be receptive to feedback and reflect on the impact of your words and actions.
- Speak up respectfully if you observe behaviour that contradicts the club's values.
- Respect all local laws, including those related to trespassing, public conduct, and photography. Obtain consent when photographing individuals as required by law.

By upholding these principles, we contribute to a safe, creative, and collaborative environment where everyone can thrive.
